UNIVERSITY OF PIKEVILLE

TESTIMONIAL

Jasmine Saucedo-Izbrand
Director, Center for Infinite Worth

“I thoroughly enjoyed the thoughtfulness that went into the design of this program. With recent changes to institutional language use, Jake was able to adapt the lesson to reach the largest audience possible. The participants each learned so much and the impact has shown up in continued requests for further conversations about what Jake addressed. It is imperative to learn about the statistics, or the real-world implications, of how kindness or the lack of psychological safety affects student's lives. Jake provided real-world application of strategies and theories for faculty and staff to take into their classrooms, offices, and clinical settings.”

Zyairia Amos
Social Media Student Assistant

“I enjoyed the event! It was informative, social, and just overall a great atmosphere. I've learned much. It also made me understand more about the LGBTQAI+ community but that I still have more to learn.”

RAINBOW SIG

TESTIMONIAL

Hannah Benson

Co-Chair, Rainbow SIG

“We hired Jacob (Trixy Valentine) to do drag trivia as a fundraiser for our organization after having worked with them many times in the past. They are the full package: welcoming, affirming, laugh-out-loud, entertaining, and educational. Our event attendees learned a ton about queer history while also participating in strut-off and lip-sync contests that got them out of their comfort zones yet more comfortable in the community. We were also able to raise awareness for the importance of our cause while Jacob uplifted queer voices and stories, past, present, and future. We would hire them again in a second, and we look forward to working with them on future events. Thank you, Jacob!”

”Mx. Kelley brought an incredible depth of knowledge, empathy, and authenticity to our Drag Queen Bingo event at Penn State Scranton! The experience was not only educational, but so well received and attended by our students.

Their ability to create a welcoming space for honest conversation while tying in educational components is amazing to watch. It’s clear that this kind of education is essential for our students, staff & faculty and Mx. Kelley delivers it with heart, purpose, and compassion. I can’t recommend them and their programs enough, and I hope more communities have the chance to learn and grow through their work. Looking forward for our next program together!”

LYCOMING COLLEGE

TESTIMONIAL

Kaitlynn Mangrum

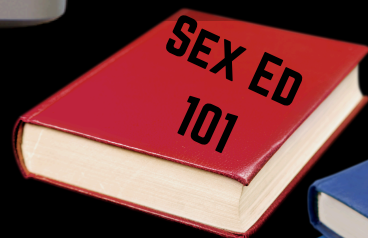

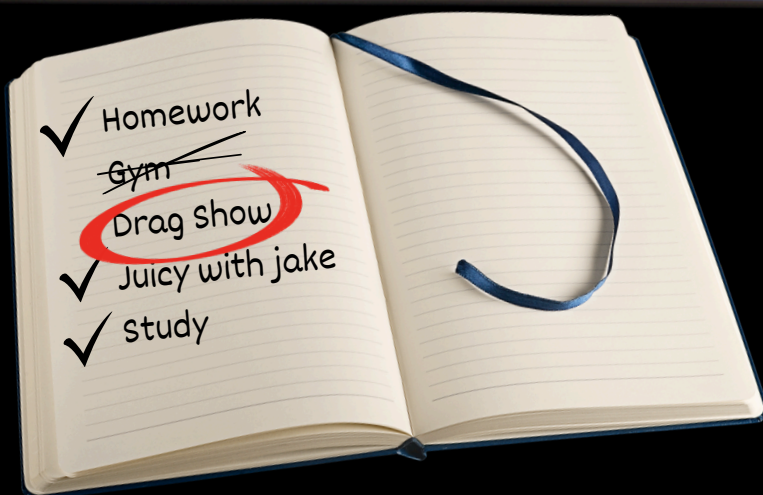

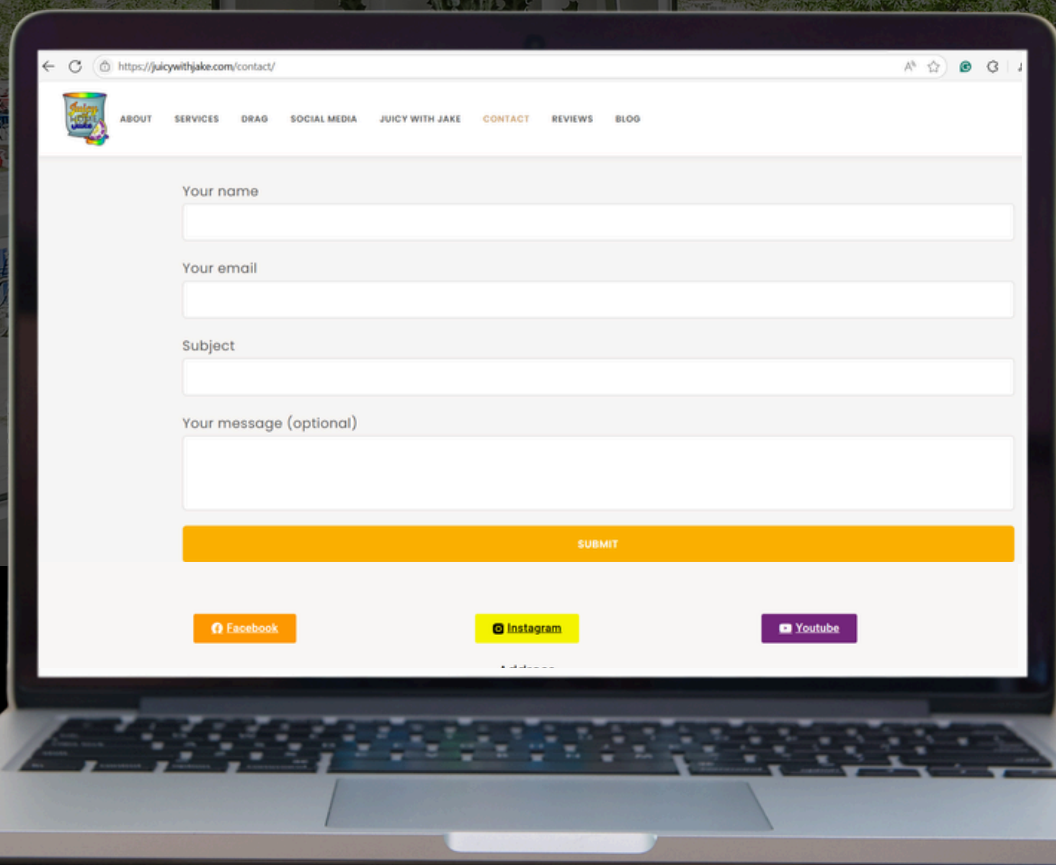

GSA President/Organizer

“A few weeks ago, Lycoming College's GSA had the absolute pleasure of having Jacob Kelley here as Trixy Valentine for two events. First, Trixy came and held a Drag Makeup Workshop where students got to learn how to do Drag Makeup. Trixy taught us the common techniques and then gave us many tips and tricks as well as some general makeup advice! She was funny, educational, and patient. Trixy answered any and all questions asked and all of us left feeling like we had learned something. The second event that we had was a Drag Show, which Trixy Valentine hosted. She also performed two numbers. Everybody adored her! She was charismatic, hilarious, and made sure that everyone had an amazing time! I highly recommend any of Jacob Kelley's services from their work in drag to their educational services! I hope to work again with them in the future!”

Jake was so excellent! Not only did they bring an incredible amount of energy to the room, but they also handled the event schedule changes with grace. Mx. Kelley was incredibly engaging and informative! Even our dining team who was there to dish out snacks couldn't resist getting in on the fun. Mx. Kelley kept the energy in the room lighthearted and open throughout the show, and answered any extra questions our students had. They have the ability to discuss topics that some may find awkward in a straightforward manner, while also making said topics approachable and understandable to the audience. We can't wait to work with them again!

TESTIMONIALS

ADLER UNIVERSITY

LUNDEN GREGORY

Student Services Coordinator

Mx. Kelley provided our university with one of the best interactive educational programs we've had all year. They provided us with information that is timely and relevant, complete with data that speaks to the changing landscape of HIV/AIDS in the United States. I, particularly, appreciated the approach to decreasing stigma in educational and workplace environments. Mx. Kelley is also a consummate professional who worked graciously around technical difficulties surrounding our virtual platform. When possible, we would like to have them speak to our audiences every year.

MERCYHURST UNIVERSITY

ALESSANDRA SORTO

Graduate Student

Trixy hosted an amazing Drag trivia at Mercyhurst! Had so much fun learning about LGBTQ+ history and culture with Trixy. I'm grateful to have an opportunity to become a better ally through activities like Drag trivia. Trixy was such a joy to watch and I'm obsessed with her killer performance!

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

DEBBIE KING

Coordinator for Intercultural and Inclusion Student Services

The Drag Workshop was absolutely phenomenal. The workshop was paced well, interactive, and kept my attention the entire time. Trixy provided a comfortable, safe atmosphere to learn and expand our knowledge based on this beautiful art form. Trixy not only embodies the glamour and empowerment of drag but also the authenticity, the charisma, and the compassion. A student missed the workshop and arrived at the end, but Trixy took the time to speak with them and answer all their questions. Trixy also made bingo a good time and her performance left us in such high spirits.

MILLERSVILLE UNIVERSITY

MARGO THORWART

Director of the Center for Health Education and Promotion

Jake was phenomenal to have on campus. They really connected with students in a way that resonated with them. Students were able to engage and ask questions about sex that in many other day to day environments they are unable or feel uncomfortable asking. All students that attend the workshop and keynote were invested and took away something.

WIDENER UNIVERSITY

DR. LAURA MCGUIRE

CEO, The National Center for Equity and Agency

Jacob has been a student of mine since 2020, and in that time I have watched them transform as a subject matter expert, speaker, and all-around change agent. They shared their journey as an educator and entrepreneur with my class and the students felt it was deeply engaging and inspiring. Jake is a consummate professional who brings authenticity, compassion, and joy to all they do. I would highly recommend them as a speaker for your next event!

PENN STATE BERKS

AUTUMN FRITZ

Mental Health Therapist/ Coordinated event

I am so grateful that we were able to jump onto the Penn State block booking to bring Jacob Kelley/Trixy Valentine to our campus. As a performer, Trixy was mesmerizing- but it was awesome to see how the educational components were woven throughout the program. While we did not have the turnout we anticipated, Trixy was able to pivot and command the space in an engaging and vibrant way. The trivia was intentional, and not only challenged students (and staff) that participated, but also provided context, understanding, and empathy for how long the LGBTQ+ community has been fighting for their rights in a way that brought everyone IN to the conversation, instead of feeling like we were being talked AT. The most humbling and eye opening fact, that I have continued to reflect on since the event- is that 2023 has seen the most anti-LGBT legislation in the history of the US and gay rights movements: challenging our beliefs that the discrimination and violence toward this community is a past tense problem, not a current tense problem. I finally want to commend Trixy for the ability to address crowd concerns with grace and compassion, while holding the students to the standard we expect on our campus.
